Paige Manitowabi
Wiikwemkoong Unceded Territory
Water First Graduate

A graduate of the pilot internship program, Paige has worked as an environmental field technician at Wahnapiatae First Nation while also pursuing a degree in Restoration Ecology at Laurentian University.

Recently, Paige was hired on as the Project Coordinator for the Internship in Georgian Bay. From being an intern herself, to an active graduate in her community, to leading the next internship and supporting a new cohort of interns; Paige is dedicated to ensuring safe, clean water in Indigenous communities.
